2. CRITICAL RULES: RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE HIRING LAWYER AND THE FREELANCER

The ultimate decision to contract with a Freelancer rests solely with the Hiring Lawyer. You agree that it is your responsibility to review, understand, and agree to the terms of the contract between yourself and the Freelancer, including the terms of compensation for the Freelancer Work Product.

While Flex is not a party to the contractual relationship between the Hiring Lawyer and any Freelancer, Flex will review and forward the Freelancer’s invoice for the Freelancer Work Product to the Hiring Lawyer with instructions to pay the Freelancer directly.

The Freelancer’s relationship is with the Hiring Lawyer as an independent contractor, and not with any third party, including any party or person that the Hiring Lawyer represents (i.e. their end-client).

Users agree to fully comply with the following rules and understand that Flex will no longer provide Services to the User upon any violation of these rules:

- a) The Hiring Lawyer will maintain the solicitor-client relationship with their own clients,
- b) The Hiring Lawyer will act in a supervisory role and have sole responsibility for any Freelancer Work Product provided to their client,
- c) The Hiring Lawyer will exercise independent professional judgment and make all final decisions regarding the Hiring Lawyer’s clients and cases, and
